

NATIVITY
PREPARATORY SCHOOL

Music Teacher

Nativity Preparatory School, a tuition-free school in the Jesuit tradition for students from low-income family backgrounds in the City of Boston, seeks an experienced Music teacher to deliver lessons in guitar, choral music, and/or music theory. This is a part-time position requiring approximately 2 hours of teaching responsibilities each week.

Specific Responsibilities:

- In consultation with the principal and curriculum coordinators, develop lessons for 4th and 5th grade students.
- Deliver lessons in Music to 4th and 5th grade students.
- Regularly assess students' progress and record grades in an online gradebook.
- Submit Pass/Fail grades for students in a timely manner at the end of each quarterly marking period.

Preferred Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree in Music and/or significant performance experience as a musician.
- Experience teaching or mentoring a diverse population of students.
- Familiarity with Jesuit education and/or the Nativity model .

Interested candidates should send a résumé, cover letter, and three professional references to the principal, Kyle Mullins (kmullins@nativityboston.org) as soon as possible.