FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Friends,

My first year as Nativity Prep's president was full of daily joys, inspirations, lessons learned and grace-filled moments. Greeting students at the front door with a handshake each morning, welcoming young alumni as they return to Nativity to meet with our Graduate Support team, following our graduates' journeys from high school to college to career - through all of this, I've had a privileged view of the transformative power of a Nativity education.

That transformative education, and the lifelong opportunity and support that comes with it, is made possible entirely through your generosity. By making a gift to Nativity, you have invested in the future of incredible young men from low-income Boston families and shown them that you believe in their potential. On behalf of the entire Nativity Prep community, thank you.

Thanks to your support, there is something even deeper going on here at Nativity, which we would call the "magis" in Ignatian terms. Your gift and investment in Nativity not only transform a young man's life, but will have an impact on his family, his community, his workplace and our city. In many ways, Nativity Prep - symbolized by the shining Nativity star - is Lighting the Way in Boston.

Our city of Boston has seen exciting and unprecedented growth over the past decade, yet not everyone has been able to share in those opportunities. We have also seen rising income inequality, a lack of quality and free education options and a dearth of workplace diversity. Nativity Prep is providing opportunity to marginalized communities through a tuition-free, private education that forms "men for others". For nearly 30 years it has been an educator of young men of color, a leader at providing top high schools and colleges with student diversity, an innovator at improving college persistence, and a key supporter of alumni as they pursue professional careers in Boston's private, public and non-profit sectors. Thanks to your partnership, we are grateful to be able to deepen our service and broaden our impact.

Inside, you will find many exciting and inspiring examples of how Nativity Prep, our alumni, and you are Lighting the Way in Boston. Thank you for being a part of the Nativity family and for your continued support of our mission.

Gratefully,

Brian P. Maher
President

2018 Highlights: Innovating and Improving on 28 Years of Transformative Education

Through its Extended-Day, Extended-Year program, academic excellence, upgrades to classroom technology, and athletics and extracurricular opportunities, Nativity Prep continues to innovate and improve on its transformational model of education that has served boys from low-income Boston communities for 28 years.

TECHNOLOGY – All classrooms received new SmartBoard technology and each student received his own personal classroom Chromebook

EXTRACURRICULAR – Nativity students participated in Discovering Justice's "Mock Trial" and "Stand Up for Your Rights" programs

ATHLETICS – The Nativity Eagles won the 2018 Nativity Invitational, capping off a strong year for Nativity teams in soccer, track and baseball

SPECIAL OPPORTUNITIES – Nativity 8th grade Class of Brebeuf attended MLK Day Lecture on social justice by Dr. Cornel West

PHILANTHROPIC SUPPORTERS

We offer a heartfelt thank you to the following individuals, foundations, corporations, schools, religious and other organizations for your generous support of our students and alumni. We remain profoundly grateful to you. You have helped the school to meet our annual operating budget, grow our endowment, and implement special projects that enable student and alumni success. Thank you!

Includes all gifts received between July 1, 2017 and June 30, 2018, including unrestricted, endowment, Securing the Promise Capital Campaign payments, and named funds. We have made every effort to ensure that our donor lists are accurate and complete. If you notice an error in our listing, please accept our apologies and contact Joanne Coluccio at jcoluccio@nativityboston.org or 857-728-0031 to make her aware of the error to ensure accuracy in future lists.

2018 College Acceptances & Highlights

Many are rightfully celebrating the rising rates of college enrollment of men of color from low-income families. At Nativity, we know that it's actually graduating that is key to unlocking better career, family and health opportunities and outcomes. Our Graduate Support team accompanies our alumni through the complexity of college visits, applications, financial aid, and enrollment, and walks with them on their way to diplomas through programs like Last Dollar Aid and Textbook Assistance.

“ The most important lessons I carry with me from Nativity are not about Pythagoras' theorem, but how firm a handshake should truly be, what it means to be a person for others, what it means to be a professional in the workplace, and what it means to do work you are proud of. Above all, in good times and in bad, Nativity has taught me to always put God first, ad maiorem dei gloriam. ”

Alumni Giving Back and Multiplying Impact

Alumni Strengthening Our Community

One of the clearest signs of the impact and inspiration of a Nativity education is the many alumni who return to serve their fellow Nativity brothers. Alumni have and continue to serve as Nativity Teaching Fellows, Board Trustees, Evening Study tutors and Alumni Council members, sharing their own Nativity experience with current students.

Nativity Class of Marquette ('09)

Roxbury Latin ('13)

Quinnipiac College ('17)

Alex's own Nativity experience led him to want to support the next generation of Nativity young men as a Teaching Fellow, as he taught and coached soccer and basketball. When the Assistant Director of Graduate Support position opened up, Alex was the perfect candidate to guide Nativity's 8th graders through high school applications and to support Nativity "men for others" in high school.

“A lot of the Nativity men who graduated before me came back and taught and were big influences on me. Learning in college about the state of our educational system, I felt the need to try to impact the community I came from in a positive way, and the first place I thought of was Nativity and the way it had done that for me.”

ANTHONY DOCANTO

Nativity Class of Grande ('11) • Boston College High School ('15) •
Boston College ('19)

After finding the power of community at Nativity, Anthony has become deeply involved in building communities and serving others wherever he is. A Gates Millennium Scholar at Boston College, he won the Alfred Feliciano & Valerie Lewis Award for service to the BC minority community, is the president of the Cape Verdean Student Association, and is a group leader on BC's Campus Ministry Magis Service Immersion trip to Jamaica.

“Despite all the preparation and opportunities while at Nativity, the school has become an even greater resource since I have left, supporting me academically, emotionally, socially, and financially. How many people can say that for their middle school?”

LIGHTING THE WAY

IN STUDENT FORMATION

Forming “Men for Others” for Boston

2018 Alumni Highlights

Following the mission of Jesuit schools set by Fr. Perdo Arrupe, SJ, Nativity’s culture forms students into “men for others” who seek to serve and support in all contexts - their families, communities, workplaces and more. The 360+ Nativity alumni “men for others” are all “Lighting the Way” in Boston in their own way.

“ Today our prime educational objective must be to form men-and-women-for-others; men and women who will live not for themselves but for God and his Christ...men and women who cannot even conceive of love of God which does not include love for the least of their neighbors, men and women completely convinced that love of God which does not issue in justice for others is a farce. ”

Boston College ('16)

Boston College Lynch School of Education (G'18)

Guided by a love of service and Jesuit education from her experience at Boston College, Meredith served Nativity as a Teaching Fellow and coordinated the school's extensive community service opportunities. She is now putting her Teaching Fellow experience into action as Director of Student Support Services at Nativity Rochester.

“ The Teaching Fellows Program allowed me not only the opportunity to pursue post-graduate service and a graduate degree at the Lynch School, but more importantly the ability to understand and find a passion for urban education. I entered the program with the intention of later pursuing work in policy, but instead found myself driven to continue working “on the ground” with students and families at Nativity Rochester due to the incredible community and family I found at Nativity Boston. ”

JOEL ALCON

Nativity Class of Baro ('01) • Roxbury Latin ('05) • Tufts University ('09)

From starting at Nativity knowing little English to now managing marketing for a tech product used by 6 million clinicians, Joel has always expressed his gratitude to the place where he got his start by being involved. Joel now serves on the newly formed Alumni Council.

“ I grew up in the Dominican Republic and had only been in the US for two years prior to starting at Nativity. The four years I spent at Nativity taught me to identify my limits and to push past them; to never settle for mediocrity; to be self-aware. I credit Nativity for instilling in me the confidence I needed to then apply to Roxbury Latin and continue to pursue my goals long after graduation. ”

A “Community for Others”

Coming Together to Serve Together

At Nativity Prep, the spirit of transformation is not confined to our students and alumni alone. The Nativity spirit of service, excellence and love is shaped by - and shapes - all who take part in the life of the school. At a time of polarization and echo chambers, Nativity brings together volunteers of all types, supporters from diverse communities, staff and faculty from a variety of backgrounds, families from all walks of Boston neighborhoods, and religious and lay allies from many creeds and charisms all for our common mission.

HUDSON EVEI

ASSOCIATE, TCW DIRECT LENDING

Nativity Class of Loyola ('96) • Georgetown University ('04) • Dartmouth Tuck School of Business ('12)

Now an Associate at TCW Direct Lending, Hudson often shares how the character, discipline and call to be his “best self” at Nativity stuck with him at each stage of his education and career. Never forgetting his roots, Hudson now offers an important alumni perspective on Nativity’s Board of Trustees.

“Nativity is a place where high expectations are placed on every student, and where students are provided the means to meet those expectations. Simply hoping for the best for our students is not what happens here at Nativity. The community expects great things out of their graduates, and we support one another to ensure our success.”

WAYS TO GIVE

Be a tutor

Volunteers serve as one-on-one tutors for the boys as they complete their daily homework assignments during Evening Study. No prior experience is necessary for this great opportunity to support and engage with our students.

Dinner Cooks for Evening Study

Dinner cooks prepare or order a balanced, nutritious meal and serve students after a long day of studying before tutoring begins. Dinner cooks are invited to sign up for any number of available evenings during the school year and no long-term commitment is required.

Leave a Legacy

Individuals who make a commitment to Nativity Prep's future through a planned gift or bequest are invited to join the 1990 Society. Society members have named Nativity Prep in their wills, qualified retirement plans, life insurance policies, trusts or pooled life income funds.

A Personal, Direct and Life-Changing Gift

Student Sponsors are “Lighting the Way” by investing directly in the potential of a Nativity boy and by accompanying him on his journey to new opportunities. Student Sponsors witness the transformative power of a Nativity education first-hand, sharing in the joys and challenges through regular student updates and personal celebrations together at Student Sponsor Appreciation events. Thank you to all of our Student Sponsors for your unique and impactful contribution to Nativity’s success.

WELBIS ORTIZ

BUSINESS ASSOCIATE, WELLINGTON MANAGEMENT

Nativity Class of Zipoli ('07) • Noble and Greenough School ('11) • Boston College ('15)

Welbis' mother enrolled him at Nativity when she heard that it was a "really hard private school with shirt and ties". As Welbis describes it, she could never have imagined that a middle school would go on to encourage and support him at Noble and Greenough, Boston College and the trading floor of Wellington Management.

“ Although my parents are some of the hardest working immigrants on the planet, never in a million years could they have predicted that me going to a small Jesuit school in Jamaica Plain would have such a major impact on my future. How many people can say that about their middle school? ”

AMARILDO "LILU" BARBOSA

CHIEF DIVERSITY OFFICER OF LESLEY UNIVERSITY

Nativity Class of Claver ('97) • Milton Academy ('02) • University of Vermont ('06, G'11) • Lesley University (PhD '19)

Nativity Prep not only sets up young men for professional success, but often forms them in a sense of mission and the importance of educational justice. Lilu fully embodies that mission today in his work as Chief Diversity Officer of Lesley University.

“Of all of my educational experiences, Nativity has probably had the most profound impact on me. I gained a lot of skills and learned in a space that was culturally affirming of my identities as a young man of color with a cultural heritage from outside of the US. While my Nativity experience was over 20 years ago, it guides my work with young people and communities of color. Nativity and higher education have a similar mission of providing equity, access to education, and successful outcomes in an environment that allows all students to participate and thrive as their full authentic selves.”

CLAUDIO DEBARROS, MD

PEDIATRICIAN, PEDIATRIC MEDICAL CARE, INC.

Nativity Class of Champion ('98) • Roxbury Latin ('02) • Duke University ('06) • UMass Medical School ('14)

Nativity gave Claudio the platform he deserved to aim high in his education and profession. From Roxbury Latin to Duke to UMass Medical School, Claudio now serves Boston through his own pediatric practice.

“Nativity formed the basis for my academic career, turning from an undisciplined C and D student in the Boston Public School system to a focused, regimented student. I became aware of what I was capable of, and accepted nothing less from myself. It guided me to apply to Roxbury Latin, which opened doors for my future success. The impact it made on my life compared to my peers at the time can't be overstated.”

The Mission

Nativity Preparatory School is an accredited, tuition-free, Jesuit middle school serving boys of all faiths from low-income families residing in Boston. Staffed by experienced teachers and dedicated volunteers who work closely with families, the school prepares students for success in high school and college. Nativity's academically challenging and highly structured environment helps students grow in a love for learning and an abiding sense of responsibility to their community. In the Jesuit tradition, the school promotes the intellectual, spiritual, social and physical growth that inspires boys from Boston to become men for others.

Your generosity and support continue to drive our results.

The only tuition-free school for boys in the city of Boston, Nativity Prep offers a rigorous, Jesuit education to middle school students from low-income families aspiring to send their sons to college.

Thank you for making their dreams a reality and the work of our school an enduring mission.
